Hon'ble M.M. Ghildiyal, J.

Heard Sri B.P. Nautiyal, learned counsel for the petitioners and learned Standing Counsel who has accepted notices on behalf of the respondents.

By means of this writ petition, the petitioners have prayed for a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari for quashing of the order of transfer dated 13.07.2004 passed by District Magistrate, Dehradun.

I have perused the impugned transfer order. I find on ground to interfere with the transfer order at this stage.

During the arguments counsel for the petitioners has prayed that he desires to file representation before the competent authority, therefore, the respondents may be directed to decide their representation within a stipulated period.

The prayer is innocuous. Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to move representation before the competent authority and in case, the petitioners file representation within ten day's from today, the authority concerned shall decide the same within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of the representation.

With these directions, the writ petition is finally disposed of.
